LOCAL GATHERINGS.

—A new office is being built for the store of F. E. Harris.
—Mrs. C. E. Harrington has sold her residence on Pearl street to M. J. Russell.
—The banks close Friday, Arbor Day being a holiday.
—Margaret G. Knox, a housekeeper of Ryegate, has filed a petition in bankruptcy with liabilities of $2,178.75 and no assets.
—The Ladies' Canton Club will meet Friday night in the Canton room.

—Twenty-six new members have been added to the St. Johnsbury Merchants' Association since March 21, including the towns of Island Pond, Windsor, Woodstock, St. Albans, Keene and Woodville, N. H., and St. Johnsbury; 69 names were added to the cash customer list at a meeting held April 18.

—A. H. McLeod is making extensive repairs on his residence on Railroad street.

—Fred A. Lacasse is soon to move his barber shop from the Pythian building to the Burnham building on Main street.

—W. H. Gale publishes a card elsewhere in this paper that he is still doing business at the old stand and is coming here regularly in the interests of his shoe trade. This was necessitated by the report circulated by a competitor that Mr. Gale was dead. He feels as Mark Twain did when his death was falsely announced. The great humorist cabled the New York Herald that the reports of his death were greatly exaggerated.

—The next meeting of the Dux Christus class will be held at the Museum class room, Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The subject is "Christian Missions," and the leaders are Mrs. A. L. Bailey and Mrs. F. J. Masters.

—Littleton, N. H., is about to spend $7000 on its streets the coming summer, and O. V. Hooker & Son have secured the contract for all the grates and manhole covers to be used. This company has furnished the city of Barre for several years.

—Miss Carrie B. Sargent has had a New England telephone placed in her rooms at 5 Webster street, call 86-21.

—The ladies of the Church of the Messiah will serve the last clam chowder supper of the season Thursday evening. Supper will be served at six o'clock. Two tables will be ready at 5.30 for those who must eat early.

—The last meeting of the current events class of the Woman's Club will be held at the Museum class room Friday afternoon at 2.30 and the subject is "Vermont's Rural Problems."

—H. G. Thomas of Stowe, commissioner of fish and game, asks the CALEDONIAN to state that lake trout fry are now ready to ship, and those wishing them to stock lakes and ponds in Vermont should write the commissioner at once for blank requisitions.

—The Summer Street laundry has a new delivery team of the fashionable shade of green and it is by far the handsomest delivery wagon in town.

—The CALEDONIAN is glad to deny the report that some of the rest of our local pastors are contemplating resigning and has been unable to ascertain where such rumors started. Our churches were never in better condition, the recent additions and the harmony between them as evidenced by the union meetings so frequently held the past few months is the most encouraging feature of our spiritual life.

—An early morning fire was discovered in the Concord candy kitchen store Tuesday, but it was extinguished before much damage was done. The fire burned through the partitions into the Kidder hardware store with small damage there. The loss on the stock of the Candy kitchen is quite large.

—F. A. Scott & Co. have sold the H. A. Farnham house in Summerville to O. C. Chamberlain of Fencham.

—The convent and Parochial schools opened this morning after the Easter vacation.

—The annual inspection of Co. D is being held today.

Legal Notice.

This is to give public notice that from this date I do not want any one to harbor or trust my wife, Gertrude L. Chesley, for I shall not be responsible for any bills of her contracting.

EASTER AT THE CHURCHES.

At the North Church.

The morning service was one of the most inspiring ever held in this church, the large audience, the music, the sermon and the flowers all contributing to the spirit of the day. The music by the double quartette choir was finely rendered in every detail of solo, concerted and organ parts. It was in complete harmony with the entire service—inspiring and worshipful. The floral display from the Undercliffe and Pinehurst conservatories was composed entirely of spring flowers. Large palms formed the background, fringed with Easter lilies, while in front of these were daffodils, narcissus, tulips and spirea. The pastor gave a strong and helpful discourse on immortality. In the evening the superintendent of the Sunday school, J. W. Saul, had arranged an exercise entitled "The Great Painter's Gospel," consisting of 50 scenes in the life of Christ thrown upon a large screen and interpreted by the superintendents, the pastor or by musical selections. T. H. Underwood managed the lantern and the views came out finely. The church was well filled and the entertainment was a most profitable one.

At the South Church.

Calla and Easter lilies were the decorations, which were very effective at this church. Rev. Dr. S. G. Barnes preached a strong sermon and music was furnished by a double quartette of the morning service. The singing of one of the anthems was accompanied by Miss Glenn Robinson on the violin. The latter part of the Sunday school hour was devoted to an Easter exercise by the children. The evening service was almost entirely musical, the chorus including 16 voices. Rev. Dr. Barnes delivered a short address. There was a large attendance at both services.

First Baptist Church.

The services at the First Baptist church were both very well attended and the concert by the Sunday school in the evening was very interesting. Following the concert were baptisms. The church was very prettily decorated with cut flowers and potted plants.

Notre Dame Des Victoires.

There was a very large attendance during all the officers of Holy Week, and on Easter day the church was filled at each of the three services, at 7.30, 10, and 4 o'clock. The church was beautifully decorated with artificial and natural flowers and the Paschal candle blessed the day before Easter. The music was of a high order and Gagnon's orchestra rendered several selections.

At the Church of the Messiah.

The day was observed by special services. At 10.30 the regular service of worship was held with appropriate music by the choir and sermon by the pastor, Rev. A. Francis Welch. Topic, "The Power of an Endless Life." At 3 o'clock the Easter communion was held and several were admitted to membership. In the evening the children of the Sunday school, assisted by a large chorus choir, gave a finely rendered program. The attendance at all the services was exceptionally large.

At Free Baptist Church.

The Easter services at the Free Baptist church were carried out according to programs previously arranged. There were good audiences at both services, and the floral decorations and potted plants were very attractive. Excellent music was furnished by the Male Quartet and ten persons were received into membership at the close of the sermon. At the concert in the evening the cantata "The Beautiful City" was presented. Miss Blanche Spaulding taking the leading part. With her the participants were Misses Eugenia Dunston, and Bernice Holder, and six boys and girls.

At St. Aloisius Church.

The services attendant upon Easter commenced at 8.30 a.m. when a large number received Holy Communion. The next service was a high mass, with the pastor, Rev. T. J. Leonard, as celebrant. At 7.30 in the evening vespers and benediction were given. There was a large attendance at all the services. The church was tastefully decorated with potted plants, palms and cut flowers, and the altar presented a very pleasing appearance. Special music was prepared for the occasion and the same was rendered in a very satisfactory manner. The altar boys appeared gowned in their new vestments for the first time.

At St. Andrew's.

A fitting conclusion to the well kept Lent by many of the parishioners of St. Andrew's parish was the observation of Easter, last Sunday. All the services were well attended. The day and services began with a sunrise celebration at 7.30, attended by an unusually large number. During this service a request came in for the singing of the hymn, "For those in Peril on the Sea." At the 10.30 service the capacity of the church was well taxed. The service was chiefly musical. Woodward's communion service was well rendered by the vested choir of 28 men and boys. The recited from the words, "Go Quickly and tell His Disciples that He is Risen from the Dead." The next service was at three o'clock when the Sunday school held its Easter festival. The music at this service was furnished by a choir of young ladies, boys and girls, and a prepared Easter service was used. The Sunday school Easter offering for missions was taken up and from all appearances was a large one. The distribution of Easter eggs was a pleasing feature of this service. The pastor spoke briefly from these words, "Consider the Lilies." The last service was at 7.30, preceded by organ recital at 7.00 by Prof. Krumpel. This service consisted of Eren-song without sermon, followed by a musical service. The choir was assisted by Miss Anna Mae Somerville, Miss Ethel Moore, the Ladies' quartet and Gagnon's orchestra of nine pieces. This service was a fitting close to the day and an artistic success. Many were turned away, not even being able to gain admission, and many stood during the entire service. The music of the entire day was in charge of Prof. Krumpel and much credit is due him for the excellent rendition of the music, as well as the high quality. The floral decorations were beautiful. "Seldom," was it said "has a more charming effect been produced in the arrangement and color."

Murderer Captured.

Drunkard Quarrel Resulted in Death. Plummer Bacon of Dalton, N. H., was arrested last evening for the murder of John Sawyer, Monday evening, at Dalton. It seems that Bacon and Sawyer had been drinking quite heavily Monday and about 6.30 in the evening they were at the Hunter farm, which is occupied by Lorenzo Ash. There the two had words in regard to Mrs. Ash and came to blows.

Sawyer succeeded in taking Bacon down on the floor but Ash separated them. As soon as Bacon had regained his feet he grabbed a 30.30 rifle and shot Sawyer dead. He then attempted to kill Mrs. Ash but was prevented by Mr. Ash who knocked the rifle upward and the bullet passed through the roof. Bacon then went to his home without being stopped, and started for the Vermont line to Lunenburg following the St. J. & L. C. R. R. to this place. Deputy Sheriff Follensby of Whitefield was notified of the crime about 11 o'clock in the evening and traced Bacon here. While on the street last evening the officer made inquiries about Bacon and Napoleon Richards said that he saw a man answering the description going down the B. & M. track about 6.30.

The officers with the assistance of the local force then went to the Welch farm in rear of the Fair ground and soon saw Bacon coming down the track and captured him. Bacon is now in jail, but will be taken to Whitefield as soon as possible. He is only 22 years old, while the murdered man is but 18 years old.

"Mrs. Tubbs' Telegram."

The Village Improvement committee of the Woman's Club have arranged for an attractive entertainment at Pythian hall Friday night consisting of a short musical, followed by a one act comedy. At the close light refreshments will be served for which a small sum will be charged. Tickets for the entertainment may be obtained of Miss Fannie E. Russell or Miss Josephine M. Woods. Following is the program of the musical and the cast of characters of the comedy, "Mrs. Tubbs' Telegram."

Violin Solos, Traumerel, Schumann Romance, Miss Elizabeth Peck. Piano Solo, "A la Bien Aimee," Schutt. Song, "Voices of the Past," Greene (With violin obligato). Miss Follensby. Piano Solo, "Spinning Song," Wagner-Liszt. Song, Miss Ross. Duet, "Valse Caprice," Nevin. Miss Brown and Mr. Harris. "MRS. TUBBS' TELEGRAM." Mrs. Tubbs, Miss Marion Fairbanks. Children of Mrs. Tubbs: Amelia, Miss Laura Chadbourne. Tommy, Miss S. Emery. Teddy, Miss Annie Peck. Other Little Tubbs: Lola and Marjorie French, Dorathen Clark, Irene Peck, Harold Carr. Neighbors of Mrs. Tubbs: Mrs. Raven, Miss Sadie Cameron. Mrs. Donnell, Miss Annie Peck. Miss Simpkins, Miss Mary Bly. Telegraph Messenger, Clyde Foster.

Brightlook Hospital Benefit.

There will be a recital for the benefit of Brightlook Hospital, at Brantview, Tuesday evening, beginning at 8 o'clock, by Blaisdell's Quartet of Concord, N. H. There will be selections by the orchestra, with B. Frank Harris at the piano, and songs by Miss Anna Mae Somerville. This will be a choice musical and an entertainment well worth hearing.

At the Hospitals.

Miss Carrie Patterson has recovered sufficiently to go from the St. Johnsbury Hospital to the home of her brother, D. D. Patterson, yesterday. Thomas Brown, who has been there two weeks, went to his home in Brattleboro, Monday; Will McIver, who has been ill with typhoid fever, has recovered and gone home; Mrs. Arthur Danplaise of Claremont, N. H., is being treated for a lung trouble; Mrs. Henry Pinard had an operation for enlarged glands, yesterday.

Mrs. Clara Heywood of Concord, was operated on at Brightlook Hospital, Friday, for appendicitis; Mr. L. N. S. the, who has been under treatment here for a few weeks went to her home Friday, much improved in health.

Special Village Meeting.

The State Board of Health have notified the village trustees that something must be done about purifying the village water and the trustees have called a special meeting at the Stanley Opera House on Wednesday evening, May 10, to see what action will be taken. The State Board of Health will attend this meeting and Dr. Henry D. Holton will address our citizens and explain the reasons that have led up to the call for the meeting.

Woman's Club Meeting.

The annual meeting of the Woman's club will be held in Pythian Hall Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock, when there should be a large attendance to participate in the election of officers for another year. Executive board meeting at 2 o'clock.
